

FANNY SACHET

Community-Driven Project Coordinator | Public Arts Researcher | Storyteller & Systems Thinker

McGill University Department of Political Science,
Philosophy
and Desautels School of Business

Experience

fanny.sachet@mail.mcgill.ca

(+1) 604-351-3496

fannysachet.com

Avi Friedman Consultants Inc

- Co-Author and Admin Lead — June 2024 to Present (Remote, part time)
Book: The Role of Public Art in Livable, Sustainable and Creative Cities.
+ Collaborating on a research-based book exploring the role of public art in community identity and democratic space-making. Synthesizing interviews, case studies, and place-based practices to inform urban design and community participation.
+ Co-coordinated the proposal process with Springer Nature and obtained approval for a contract on the first round.
- Copy Editor and Researcher — May 2023 to June 2024
+ Managed and copy-edited "Neighbourhood: Designing a Livable Community" published by Vehicule Press.
- Research Assistant — December 2022 to May 2023
+ Assisted in the production of "Sustainable Lessons from People-Friendly Places" by Avi Friedman

ArtsHelp Non-Profit June 2022 to June 2023

- Internship — Editorial Board — 1 year (Remote)
+ Led the editorial process of 11 articles amplifying underrepresented voices in creative fields including local music, fine arts, and film.
+ Piloted research and story-telling centered on sustainable artistic practices, managed artist communications, conducted interviews, and participated in weekly pitch meetings.

Arts & Immigration Alliance Non-Profit August 2024 to December 2024

- Non-Profit Entrepreneurial Advisor — 4 months (Montreal, on call)
+ Collaborated across legal, administrative, and creative teams to help A&AI secure registered charity status — laying the groundwork for its mission to support community-led art intervention promoting immigration rights

The Neighbourhood Thrift Non-Profit — March 2020- 2023

- Social Entrepreneur — 3 years
+ Co-founded and operated a women-led e-commerce platform and digital publication advocating for sustainable local practices by upcycling second-hand fabrics into reusable tote bags and collaborating with local artists for designs.
+ Partnered with local organizations to donate proceeds monthly.
+ Participated as entrepreneur guest lecturer and in local community markets

Education

McGill University — Montreal QC, Canada

- Bachelor of Arts — Major Concentration in Political Science
  - Minor Concentration in Philosophy
  - Minor Concentration in Social Entrepreneurship and Innovation
+ Completed: Management Essentials, Project Management, Organizational Behaviour, Design Thinking, Entrepreneurship in Practice, Social Innovation

Volunteer

- Co-Founder of Open Conversations discussion group (2018-2020)
+ Founded and led weekly community meetings in North Vancouver open to new ideas, debates, and expression. Designed to open up dialogue and collaboration between peers to promote curiosity and understanding.

Creative, adaptable, and multi-passionate, Fanny is an interdisciplinary thinker known for wearing multiple hats. Often juggling many projects with ease, Fanny is highly organized, detail-oriented, and enthusiastic. Whether co-authoring an urban planning book or helping a local non-profit, she thrives in environments that value community collaboration, innovation and purpose.

She is skilled in organizing workflows, fostering inclusive environments, and translating local knowledge into creative, structured outputs. Fanny is extremely passionate about building human-centered systems that support social connection and equity.

Skills:

Digital Communication
Community Building
Collaborative Project-
Management
Writing & Editing
Interpersonal Relations
WordPress
Critical and Design Thinking
Video Editing
Excel